

MEDIA RELEASE
For Immediate Release

Date: July 7, 2010
Contact: Shelia L. Green
Phone: 410-715-3171

Village facilities across Columbia offer cool places to beat the heat Village Community Associations opening doors for elderly on hot days

Several Columbia Village Associations are opening their doors to elderly who need a cool, air-conditioned space to escape to during this record heat wave. Community members may visit the following facilities during their regular daytime operating hours:

| Facility Name* | Address |
|--|---|
| Linden Hall (Dorsey's Search Community Association) | 4765 Dorsey Hall Drive Ellicott City, MD 21042 410-730-4005 |
| Hawthorn Center (Hickory Ridge Community Association) | 6175 Sunny Spring Columbia, MD 21044 410-730-7327 |
| Amherst House (Kings Contrivance Community Association) | 7251 Eden Brook Drive Columbia, MD 21046 410-381-9600 |
| Stonehouse (Long Reach Community Association) | 8775 Cloudleap Court Columbia, MD 21045 410-730-8113 |
| The Other Barn (Oakland Mills Community Association) | 5851 Robert Oliver Place Columbia, MD 21045 410-730-4610 |
| Claret Hall (River Hill Community Association) | 6020 Daybreak Circle Clarksville, MD 21029 410-531-1749 |
| Historic Oakland (Town Center Community Association) | 5430 Vantage Point Road Columbia, MD 21044 410-730-4744 |

* Due to previously booked facility rentals, at times only the lobby may be available.

The Owen Brown Village Center is currently closed for renovations. Other Community Association buildings may also be available. Please call the facility closest to you to check availability.

#

10221 Wincopin Circle
Columbia, Maryland 21044
Switchboard: 410-715-3000
Fax 410-715-0389