CA rewards teens for community service effort Spirit of Columbia Scholarship awards up to six $2,500 scholarships

The Columbia Association (CA) Maggie J. Brown Spirit of Columbia Scholarship Award is given annually to Columbia high school seniors who have shown exceptional effort in providing community service to benefit Columbia residents and those in the Columbia area. CA has been recognizing high school seniors for outstanding service to their community for more than 20 years. This year, up to six $2,500 scholarships will be awarded to graduating high school seniors who live on CA-assessed property or have a parent who works full time on CA-assessed property, have a minimum of a C-average and have a demonstrated history of voluntary service to the Columbia community.

Applications are available online at www.ColumbiaAssociation.org/Scholarship. Completed applications must be submitted by March 15, 2012. For more information, please call 410-715-3161. Learn more about the scholarship in this February 2010 clip from Columbia Matters TV show - <http://bit.ly/sUQGgf>.
