Are cycling classes for you?

- 1. Reach your goals faster: With motivating music, encouraging instructors, and a variety of workouts, you'll train smarter and work out longer.
- 2. Choose your pace: Appropriate for beginner through advanced. You control the speed and difficulty at all times.
- 3. Good for special populations: You can participate in cycling classes if you are recovering from an injury, requiring low-impact activities, suffering from over-training or just beginning an exercise program.

Studio Cycling

Studio Cycling classes are a benefit of Package Plan Plus. Package Plan Plus Members can reserve their space beginning 24 hours in advance.

Please remember to check-in five minutes before class begins or your space will be given to a member on the waiting list.

Thirty minutes prior to the class, Club or Package Plan Members may sign-up in person on a separate waiting list for spaces that are not taken by Package Plan Plus Members 5 minutes before the class starts. For safety and courtesy, the instructor cannot allow you to enter once the class has started.

Class Descriptions

Studio Cycling

A fun, low-impact workout fueled by motivating music. Practice proper cycling techniques as you perform drills to simulate hill climbs, flat roads, interval and endurance work. All levels of participants welcome. Classes are indicated as 45, 60 and 75 minutes (advanced).

Express Cycling

Experience all the hills, flats and drills of studio cycling in only 30 minutes. Recommended for those with time constraints or for those looking for an introductory class. All levels of participants welcome.

Endurance Cycling

A longer, lower intensity version of Studio Cycling. Learn to workout more efficiently, increase your aerobic capacity, and improve your body's ability to burn fat. All levels of participants welcome. Classes are 75 minutes.

If you are new to cycling, please arrive 10 minutes before class begins to allow time for the instructor to go over set up and safety issues.
